

Nursing, Midwifery, AHP and Pharmacy Professionals (NMAHPP) Research Symposium

12th November 2026 12.20 – 16.05

Teams Webinar

12.20	Join Symposium – wait in Lobby
12.30	Welcome and Opening Remarks Professor Juliet MacArthur, Chief Nurse Research & Development, NHS Lothian
	Presentations
	Breakout Room A Chair: Jen Barekat, Teaching Fellow, UoE Facilitator: Kim Christie, Lecturer, QMU	Breakout Room B Chair: TBC Facilitator: Dr Gosha Colquhoun, Lecturer, ENU
12.40	Childhood Neurodevelopmental Outcomes Among Pre-School Children Born Small-for-Gestational Age at Term: A Systematic Review and Meta-Analysis Rosie Jenks, Midwife/PhD Student, University of Edinburgh	The Effectiveness of Personalised Auditory Stimuli in Managing Critically Ill Adult Comatose Patients: A Systematic Review and Meta-Analysis. Roseminu Varghese, Lecturer in Nursing, Edinburgh Napier University
13.10	Understanding Secondary Prevention After Stroke - A Pilot Project Using the Stroke Scottish Therapeutics Utility Tool Becky Cameron/Karen Reid, Pharmacist, Edinburgh HSCP Primary Care Pharmacy	Exploring Mothers' Experiences with Post-Discharge Kangaroo Mother Care Follow-up Visits: A Qualitative Study at War Memorial Hospital, Upper East Region of Ghana Francis Piroug Peema, Masters in Research Student, University of Edinburgh
13.40	Co-designing a socially assistive robot intervention for diabetes self-management: Perspectives of adults living with diabetes Amani Al Bayrakdar, Lecturer in Nursing, Edinburgh Napier University	Expert-derived Components of a Person-Centred Nursing Intervention to Reduce Distress in Hospitalised People Living with Dementia and/or Cognitive Impairment Izzi Reilly, Research Assistant/Staff Nurse, Queen Margaret University/NHS Lothian
14.10	Comfort Break
14.20	Navigating Diagnostic Uncertainty: A qualitative exploration of First Contact Physiotherapists (FCPs) in Scottish Primary Care Judith Balfour, Advanced Physiotherapy Practitioner, Midlothian/Clinical Doctorate Student, University of Stirling	Pre-post feasibility study of Belter (Broad health determinants): An intervention to improve physical and mental health of people facing homelessness, criminal justice involvement or substance use Darren Sherrie, Lead Pharmacist Adult Inpatient Services (REAS), NHS Lothian & Dr Richard Lowrie, University of Edinburgh

	Masterclasses
	Breakout Room A Chair: Prof Juliet MacArthur Facilitator: TBC	Breakout Room B Chair: TBC Facilitator: TBC
14.50	Research in Challenging Environments: • Research with Participants who are Homeless – Dr Richard Lowrie, University of Edinburgh • Research with Participants with Complex/Severe Mental Health Problems – Professor Thanos Karatzias, Edinburgh Napier University	Building a Strong Research Group Environment Professor Eddie Duncan, University of Stirling
	Panel Discussion
15.30	Research Impact - Conducting and consuming research that changes practice, policy, service design, pathways Panel Chair: Dr Stephanie Valentin, Associate Professor of Physiotherapy, Edinburgh Napier University Panel • Professor Cathy Bulley, Co-Director Centre for Health, Activity and Rehabilitation Research (CHEARR) and Head of the Graduate School, Queen Margaret University • Dr Charlie Chung, Consultant Occupational Therapist/Allied Health Professions Stroke Strategic Lead/Long COVID Clinical Services lead/Honorary Fellow Queen Margaret University • Dr Gosha Colquhoun, Lecturer, Edinburgh Napier University/Honorary Research Consultant, NHS Lothian • Dr David Fitzpatrick, Lead Practitioner for Health & Care Staffing, Scottish Ambulance Service and NRS Fellow.
16.00	Closing Remarks Dr Fiona Maxton, Chief Nurse Research & Development/Clinical Research Nurse Manager, NHS Lothian
16.05	Close of session	