

Astley Ainslie Hospital Edinburgh EH9 2HL

Introduction

Welcome to the Astley Ainslie Hospital. This leaflet should give you all the information you need when you attend your appointment. On arrival at the hospital wheelchairs are available to use if required, please ask at the department you are visiting. You are welcome to bring a friend or relative with you if you would find that helpful.

An interpreter service is available. Should you require this service, please contact the telephone number listed on your appointment letter as soon as possible. As this is a teaching hospital, staff may sometimes be accompanied by students. You will be asked beforehand if this is acceptable to you and you have the right to refuse. Please see map on the reverse to help you arrive at your destination within the hospital.

Travelling by Train

Take train to Edinburgh Waverley Station. See Bus Services above for buses from Princes Street or North Bridge. Please note that there is no direct bus from Edinburgh Haymarket Station.
