

Evaluation of Stroke Workbook training 2014

The following provides a summary of feedback with regards to a recent Stroke workbook course.

Overall facilitators responded very positively about the training and its content; also stating that it provided them with a very good knowledge base to facilitate the resource with individual patients' and their families.

If you wish to find out more about the feedback or for further information on future Stroke Workbook training courses please contact the team - heart.manual@nhslothian.scot.nhs.uk